EXCEL COMPETENCY PROGRAM

The Excel Competency Program is a self-directed study in Microsoft Excel. This is not a course, but a requirement to fulfill before you may enroll in Eco 045, Acct 151, or BIS 111. You must complete a study guide and practice exam, and you may attend a seminar before sitting for the Excel Competency Exam. To successfully complete the Excel Competency Program, you must pass the Excel Competency Exam.

For more information, including exam and seminar dates and times, as well as frequently asked questions, go to <http://go.lehigh.edu/excelcompetency> and enroll yourself in the program. You will be asked to enter your Lehigh ID and password. You will then need to click the “Enroll” button to add yourself to the Course Site page.
